Our aim is to “Inspire the child within...Inspire the child without” by delivering excellent books and events. In order that we can maintain the high standard of our books and events, it is important for us to communicate effectively. We achieve this through our e:business online for all our administration to facilitate our travel and work schedules.

Thank you for your support in this and our correspondence details are as follows:

- | | |
|--|---|
| www.gillcarrie.com | please visit our website for further information, our online shop for purchasing books, learning tools & ideas with some free downloads plus our fun section for children |
| gillcarrie@mac.com | please email for any further queries or information required and/or to forward your Event Enquiry & Book Order Form and your School/Organisation Authorisation Form |
| 00 44 7870 144 976 | please call us direct if you have any other queries |

As every project is individual, a more comprehensive meeting is advised to discuss the aims, expected outcomes and costings of any proposed workshop. These can be conducted by telephone, conference call, video conference call or in person depending on the circumstances.

Kind Regards

Gill Carrie
